Parenting Pointers:

Gratitude is often part of prayer at meals or night time. That's good—but feeling grateful is not the end of the story. Act on it! Make a deal with your child. Each of you think of a person who did something you were grateful for & promise to tell the person.

Practice Makes Catholic - Did you know?

Looking for a new way to start your morning? Try Morningoffering.com. This site offers a short reflection as well as presenting a Saint of the day. I have found it to be both interesting in the contemplation of each Saint and their life as well as of their journey to holiness.

The reflection centers the rest of your day because sometimes, taking the time for just that small reflection can change your outlook for the whole day.

This site is useful for me because it comes onto my Facebook page on my phone.

In our busy everyday lives it reminds me that we are on a journey to holiness. When my plate is too full this site makes my cup run over.

Thirteenth Sunday of Easter

Matthew 10:37

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me."

We all have loved ones in our lives; people who we can't imagine being without. Each of those loved ones is a gift from a loving God. We must not however place these special people at a level above God himself. God is to be our center-most point from which all blessings radiate.

Marriage Moment

Independence is an important step on the journey to adulthood, but marriage also requires dependence. I depend on you to keep your word, to be there when I'm feeling hurt, to watch the kids so I can have a break. How do you depend on one another?
