Marriage Moment

"Have no anxiety at all, but... make your requests known to God." (Philippians 4:6)

We all have anxieties in life - money, health, our kids, safety etc. My spouse can't solve all my problems, but sharing our needs in prayer together can lessen the anxiety.

Practice Makes Catholic - Did you know?

Contemplative prayer

In the chaos of daily life our souls need to be recharged.

In a silent church or empty room, sitting in the woods, or near a sylvan lake or slow moving stream we refresh ourselves. We let ourselves be renewed.

We allow ourselves to remember....

"Be still, and know that I am God"

the Lord Jesus Christ bless and console you.

Twenty-Eight Sunday in Ordinary Time

Philippians 4:12

"I know how to have little; I know what it is to have plenty. In any and in all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need."

St. Paul neither craved nor rejected material wealth. He was simply detached from it; he could take it or leave it. A steward is called to "possess lightly." Money is neither good nor evil, but merely reflects the person who possesses it.

Parenting Pointers:

"I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry." (Philippians 4:12) No one likes to go hungry, but periodic fasting from food can put us in solidarity with those who don't have a choice. Ask your child to "fast" with you on a certain day.

Pray for the sick of our Parish

Mildred Barr, Bennie Bruner, Mary Crutcher, Clay Fackler, David H. Fackler, Donna Fellmy, Sonny & Claire Frantz, Larry & Joan Gagel, Mary Greenwell, Tommy Hardesty, Linda King, Rita Klem, Rose LaTondress, Marvin & Mildred Mattingly, Paul Mattingly, Vance Menefee, Marie Padgett, Kathleen Powell, Flossie Powell, Becky Stiff, Lucy Tate Stupak, Bonnie Szwed, Charles & Rita Thompson, Rose Whelan

If you know a parishioner who is sick, homebound or in the hospital & would like Father Kevin to visit, please call the Parish Office.

Please remember to call and remove yourself or your loved one when they are no longer ill or in need of prayers. Thank you.

Community News
