Identity Statement:

St. John the Apostle is a parish community of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Louisville and was established in 1892 as St. George Parish. In 1931 the parish name was changed to St. John the Apostle. St. John's has a proud heritage.

There are a variety of gifts but always the same spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done but always the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.
