

Sixth Sunday of Easter Sunday | Year B
May 5, 2024 (Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48 | 1 John 4:7-10 | John 15:9-17)

Peter told Cornelius not to pay him homage, for he himself was a human being. Rather, he ought to fear God who shows no partiality in saving people. Let us now turn to God.

1/ God has revealed to all nations his saving power, so let us sing his wondrous deeds. For every ethnic group of peoples on earth. We pray that they may follow the guidance of Pope Francis, pastors, and deacons in singing the saving power of God. Let us pray.

2/ In his letter, John urges us to love one another because love is of God. The one who loves is begotten by God and knows God. For those who call themselves Christians, but have no love in their hearts. We pray that, in seeing others' love, they may love in return. Let us pray.

3/ To remain in Jesus is to remain in his love for us. In so doing, God will love us. For world leaders and politicians, particularly those who have been consumed by destructive powers. We pray that the message of Christianity regarding "love for one another" may be proclaimed to them and throughout the world. Let us pray.

4/ Jesus promises that those who truly carry out his commandment of "love for one another" will be loved by God, and that God will hear their voice in times of need. For our sisters and brothers who have died with their faith in and love for Jesus. We pray that God may grant them life in heaven. Today we remember [at 4:30 PM] Frances Bruner and Liz Wheatley [at 10:00 AM Mass] Herbert Chism and Decease Family Members. Let us pray.

God our Father, maker of all things, the crown of your creation was the Son of Man, born of a woman, but without beginning. May our mortal lives be crowned with the ultimate joy of rising with him, who is Christ and Lord for ever and ever.
