March 27 – The Prodigal Son – What a great story! A young man receives his inheritance and wastes it partying and sinning. When the money runs out, he comes back to his father because he realizes that he is worth more than this empty life. He realizes his dignity, that he was made for more. The son knew he could return to his father and that his father would welcome him back with open arms. Aren't we like that with God? He gives us love and direction and we squander it. As we realize the error of our ways, we run back to His loving arms. How wonderful it is to know a God who forgives us and shows us infinite mercy.
