From the Pastor:

I have a very difficult announcement to make. In my recent visit to Archbishop Shelton, he asked me to consider another assignment as pastor. Although the new appointment was not what I had expected or wanted, with much hesitation I accepted his request to become pastor of Epiphany Catholic Church in Louisville. This appointment will begin on June 19. While we will have more opportunities to say goodbye later, I wish to now thank each and every one of you for the love you have shown me in the last several years.

To continue serving the needs of our community and by God's providence, Archbishop Shelton has appointed Fr. Michael Martin to be the next pastor here. I have spoken with Fr. Michael, and he is very enthusiastic and eager to know and serve you here at Saint John the Apostle. Fr. Michael will have the opportunity to introduce himself, but I trust that God is watching us and influencing the course of our faith in him. I will offer Fr. Michael my assistance in this transition.

Please keep our Parish, Fr. Michael, and me in your prayers in the coming months. Thank you, and May God continue to bless all of you! Fr. Toan

*Weekday masses will be cancelled from Tuesday, April 23-May 3rd. Fr. Kevin Bryan will be with us on the weekends of April 27-28 and May 4-5 while Father Toan is away.

Be There When God Moves

From July 17–21, 2024, thousands of passionate Catholics will gather for a transformative experience on a scale this generation has never seen. Whether you join us for one day or all five, the grace you receive will spill out into our community when you return home—deeply in love with the Eucharist and excited about the future of the Church in America. Visit EucharisticCongress.org to learn more about the event and explore the full schedule for each day. The more people who register at once, the lower the cost becomes! Register online at eucharisticcongress.org.

What: 10th National Eucharistic Congress

When: July 17–21, 2024

Where: Lucas Oil Stadium, Indianapolis, IN

Don't forget to stop by and pick up any dishes left in the cafeteria from bereavement dinners. They are on a cart in the kitchen.
