From the Pastor:

Dear Parishioners:

The following is the instruction on how to follow the Scripture Readings printed in the new Music Book:

The Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), convened by the pope now known as Saint John XXIII, achieved many great things for the goodness of the Catholic Church. One of the greatest accomplishments promulgated by the Council must certainly be the renewal of the scripture readings for all of the liturgical celebrations in the life of the Church. The following succinct explanation pertains to the scripture readings printed in the new music book, Gather (third edition), that our parish adopts and begins to use on the Solemnity of Pentecost Sunday, 2022.

1/ The liturgical calendar begins with the First Sunday of Advent (usually the Sunday right after Thanksgiving in the US) and ends with the Sunday of Christ the King (usually the Sunday right before Thanksgiving in the US).

2/ The scripture readings are divided into two paths: (i) Sunday Cycles and (ii) Weekday Cycles. The Sunday Cycles consist of Cycle A, Cycle B, and Cycle C whereas Weekday Cycles comprise Year I and Year II. Although the combined readings of each celebration of the Eucharist have been chosen to complement each other in order to form a theological theme for that day, that may or may not actually be achieved in every case.

3/ The readings of each celebration are chosen to amplify the meaning of the Gospel proclamation.

4/ Each Sunday has three readings: the First Reading is drawn from a passage in the Old Testament; the Second Reading is drawn from the New Testament letters; and the Gospel passage is selected from one of the four Gospels.

5/ The Gospel proclamations for Sundays in Cycle A are taken from the Gospel according to Matthew. Those for Sundays in Cycle B are taken from the Gospel according to Mark. Those for Sundays in Cycle C are taken from the Gospel according to Luke. Our current liturgical year (First Advent of 2021 through Christ the King of 2022) belongs to Cycle C. So, many of the Gospel proclamations throughout this Cycle C are taken from the Gospel according to Luke. The next liturgical year, therefore, will be Cycle A, in which the Gospel proclamations are taken from the Gospel of Matthew.

6/ The Gospel of John has a different genre than that of the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and John's texts lend themselves especially to the themes of the Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter seasons, and so these seasons are when we can expect to hear significant portions of John's gospel proclaimed.

7/ Since the scripture readings for every day of the liturgical calendar cannot be included in a single volume of a music book, the editors of Gather have done their best to include all those of the Sundays and the Holy Days of Obligation.

9/ Gather does not have pagination. Rather, the table of contents for this third edition of Gather follows the numerical order. As a result, scripture readings begin with number 990.

10/ Regarding this weekend of the Solemnity of Pentecost Sunday (06/05/2022), the readings start with number 1083 for Vigil Mass or number 1084 for Mass during the Day. Since this Feast is special, the same set of scripture readings has been chosen for all three Cycles A, B, and C.

11/ Scripture readings of weekday (i.e., Year I or Year II) are not printed in this Gather.

This explanation above can be intimidating and overwhelming. Yet, the scripture readings are vast and plentiful. The scholars working to design the new lectionary in response to the call of the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council did their best to help bring out the richest and most meaningful excerpts from the Bible for the benefit of all the faithful. I hope this helps.

The new music books with all scripture readings for Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation are now in the pews. Hopefully, they will serve our parish many years, if not decades, to come.

One can never underestimate how generous our parishioners are. When it comes to the things that are right and meaningful to our worship, the response from those who love our parish has been overwhelming. The total costs of the copies of the books, the shipping, and the printing were $6,310. Overwhelmingly, the parish received $11,630. Thus, there will be $5,320 surplus.

I mentioned before that we could do two things to improve the abilities for us to listen to and to follow the liturgy. The first thing was to provide those who would benefit from having the scripture readings available to them. The second thing would be to upgrade the sound system in our Church. Therefore, the surplus of $5,320 will be used toward upgrading the sound system. We have begun working on this project.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity to our parish.
